CENTLY. MENY—In response to the solicitation of a number of prominent gentlemen residing in the different actilements of your alectoral District to offer myself as a cancidate to represent your interests in the House of Commons. I have, after mature consideration, consented to do so, and have now the honor to solicit your suffrages at the approaching election.

The measures that a member of the House of Commons may be called out to deal with being different from those of a member of the local legislature, being in their nature more national, it is doubtless expected that I as a candidate general course of Political Parties. In the columns of our local contempor. ary yesterday there appeared a communication signed "FAIR PLAY," which bears the impressed having been coined with the impress of having been coined within the precincts of the Colonist establishment, in which the writer takes excep- cited, and for others which time and tion to the term "Obstructive," as spplied by us to the party whose organ the Colonist is, and that of "Progressive," which recognizes in the STANDARD the exponent of its political sentiments. Our only excuse for noticing the communica-tion at all is that it affords us an opportunity of offering a few comments upon the political antecedents of those for whom the Colonist is devoting its little energies to secure their election to the Commons of the Dominion as the people's representatives. Before doing so we would observe that we are not now, nor have we ever been, influenced either for or against any individual from motives of personal like or dislike-we contend with principles, not with persons. As

THE PUBLIC ARE HEREBY NOTI.

The dust the School in connection with the Cona party, we have a right to measure all those who follow his leadership by the same standard which we measure bim. His policy is their policy, his antecedents their guide. If his past career shows him to have been the unwavering opponent of every liberal measure that has ever been brought before the Legislature of the late colony from 1858 to 1871, it is but fair to assume that those who accept him as their leader now, whether tried or untried politicians, are just as unworthy of public confidence as he is. We judge men in their public relations by the same rule that we apply in private affairs, by the company they keep. We have no confidence in the honesty of men who choose as their every-day companions those who are noted for dishonesty in their dealings with their fellow men ; nor by the same rule are we disposed to confide the political destinies of this Province to any man or set of men whose past record shows him or them to have been at all times and upon all occasions opposed to every measure of a progressive character, and to the wellunderstood wishes of the people. Dr. Helmcken has been a representative man, a legislator, for upwards of twelve years, and during that whole time we challenge him or any one for him to asme a single measure having for its object the develop ment of the country's resources or the according to the people the right of a larger share of control in the management of public effects than they enjoyed under the late one-man system, that he ever introduced himself or that he did not oppose when introduced by others. It is on this ground that we place Dr. Helmcken and those who go with him in other hand those who have uniformly opgovernment, who have devoted their time and their energies to bring about reforms in the administration of affairs and to inaugura e measures to improve the condition of the country, to curtail the extravagant expenditures of the government.

relieve the people of a weight of taxa-tion which had become absolutely bur-densome, and to give them that control in the management of their own affairs enjoyed by the residents of the other British American Provinces, we designate the "Progressive" party. Among those who have thus exerted themselves, who has been more consistently the advocate of popular rights and liberal measures than Mr. DeCosmos? Why has be and Dr. Helmcken invariably stood opposed to each other on the floor of the Legislature? Simply because the one was the advocate of progressive measures and the other devoted his time, his talents, and what influence he possessed to defeat him in the attainment of his objects When Mr. DeCosmos sought to obtain a land system for the Colony adapted to the requirements of the people, and to put a check upon the "grabbing" pro-pensities of the Hudson Bay Company at the time when the company was called on to surrender the proprietorship of the public domain to the Crown, who more strenuously opposed him than Dr. Helmcken? When it was proposed to incorporate this city and give the citizens the right to manage its local affairs, who more grudgingly yielded to the demands of the people for municipal privi-leges, than Ur. Helmcken? Where was he when the great contest on the subject of Free Port vs. Tariff took place? Certainly not on the side of the farmer, mechanic, or laborer, but on that of the importer and speculator. On each of those questions he stood oppused to Mr. DeCosmos. The same on Education, on the Homestead Law, and in fact every measure, as before stated, having for its object the progress of the country, either politically or socially. With reference to the Doctor's mission to Ottawa as the bearer of the Terms of Confederation agreed to by the Legislative Council of British Columbia, for which the Colonist so loudly trumpets his praises, we fail to see wherein he is entitled to the credit placed to his ac-opposition, if he had any such notion, and and has ft the Delegates no option but to close the bargain and return home. It is not true that Mr. DeCosmos ever opposed J. W. Powell Confederation. From the beginning to end he never faltered in his devotion to watched the progress of the debates on the question. It is for the reasons above space forbid to mention, that we designate Dr. Helmcken and those who like Mr. Nathan identify themselves with him, "Obstructives." They have little sym- wm pathy with the general public. Their conservative instincts are opposed to reform and progress, and hence our conviction is that no greater blander could be committed by the electors of any constituency, and more particularly an agricultural one, than to send either the one or the other of them to the House of Com-

CENTLEMEN t—Having been requested by a number of Electors to become a candidate for the representation of this district, I have great pleasure in complying with this request, and beg to solicit your votes and support. It is customary on such occasions for candidates to express their views and opinions on the leading issues of the day and in deference to this custom I beg to offer for your approval the following policy.

I am prepared to advocate:

1st Repeal of the Permanent Civil List Act.

2d Repeal of the Qualification of Voters' Act.

3d Amendment of the Registration of Voters' Act.

4th A National System of Free Schools.

5th Mail Communication and Good Roads to outlying Settlements,

Settlements, 6th Local Road Boards, having power to issue contract to settlers.

Assimilation of our Pre-emption Law with the Pree Land System of Canada.

Government assistance to farmers for irrigating purposes.

I am opposed to all private legislation for the purpose of granting monopolies, as I consider them to be detrimental to the interests of the community and at variance with the principles of sound political economy.

In conclusion I assure you that I shall deem it a pleasure as well as my duty to support all measures calculated to develop the resources of this district and of the Province generally.

The Dinner to the Hon. Mr. Langevin.

EDITOR STANDARD :- I have just read the letter of your correspondent "Civis," on the tent, by the faithful discharge of my official subject of the proposed banquet to the Hon. functions, the confidence in me which you do Mr. Langevin, and fully endorse the view he takes. In order to give the affair a realty public character, the Mayor should have been solicited to con & ie a public meeting to make in this matter gives it the character not only of a party demonstration but of a private entertainment. I therefore think it would have teen better, nor is it too late now, to ask the Mayor to convene a meeting either to endorse what has been siready done, or so to change the programme as to give it the char acter of a bona fide publ c expre sion of respect directed towards the obstruction, when, it is said, he took a note. An exploring party has returned to Chiliman to placed in such a light before him, that Mr. Langevin would feel constrained to decline

THIRTY-FIVE MILLIONS REQUIRED FOR PRIMAIONS

NEXT YEAR.

WARRISOTON, August 15—The Commissioner of Pensions estimates that there are at least 40,000 people, soldiers and widows of the war of 1812, who will be entitled to pensions under the Act of February 14th, 1871.

This nember will require a sum of $4,000,000 annually. When the bill was under discussion last winter the maximum number of sion last winter the maximum number of these pensions living, was supposed to be only 9,000, but the estimate of the Commissioner is most likely to be correct. This will require an appropriation for pensions next year of fully $35,000,000. The total number ations for 1812 pensions to date, is Bull and Bear Fight.

The great bull and bear fight, came off at after eight, when the sliding door of the cage was raised and

THE BOAR ENTERED THE ARENA. It was jammed. The bear, a large Coast Range animal of the cinnamon species, welked leisurely into the huge cage, snifled at the stand near the opposite sliding gate by which the built was to be let in. The bear was stand near the opposite sliding gate by watch the bull was to be let in. The bear was leudly cheered. He began smelling about the door of the bull's stail. "He smells the bull," was the cry." "Oh no, he sin't no fighter!" He smells the bull and wants to get tweeds, fancy slik relvet, figured silk and at him !" Such were the cries heard, and bear stock began to look up. It was a matter of difficulty to get the bear away from the door long enough to let the bull into the AT INST the bear left the deer

No sooner had be entered than he caught sight of the bear cowering at the opposite side of the cage. There was just time for elight hum of applause and approval when the large, firmly knit and fierce looking ball stepped forward and shook his head, when he made a dash at the bear and gave him a tremendous dig with his horns, causing the bear to utter a loud roar. The bear clawed the bull about the head for a second or two and then got away.

THE PIGHTING.

THE HYDE PARK MEETING.

A London special, of the date of the 7th says: The meeting at Hyde Park to-day, in protest against the brutality of the police to the late Dublin riots, was insignificant. At the late Dublin riots, was insignificant. At the hour of meeting, a band with 20 men and about 1,000 juvenile Ragamuffins marched into about 1,000 juvenile Ragamuffins marched into the Park, bearing the flag of the Red Residual upon the stage, crowding against and bearing upon the hars, regardless of either bull or bear. The lights were now turned completely out, but matches were lighted in all parts o the house by those who had them. And the crowd yelled fiercely for the house to be lighted. The gas was turned on, and Charley Parker came upon the stage. At first be was bissed and hooted; but he stood his ground, and was finally allowed to speak. He said he had done sil he could to make the animals fight. If the audience thought they could do better, they could appoint a committee and go at it. He would pay for the gas, even though they wished to run the fight all night Soon a sort of volunteer committee began

A CRY FOR PIRE-CRAKERS was at one raised, and the cry was instantly the stage. The package was opened, and a man was about to light the lot, when the property man of the theatre interfered, saying they would set the building on fire. Had the creaters goes into the desirous of purchasing homesteads, or making investments, will find on his Bulletin Board Town Lots on nearly every atreet; crackers gone into the den, the chances are that both bull and bear would have come out.

POLES ARMED WITH BAYONETS

Were new freely used upon both animals, and the crowd succeeded in getting about as many skip or break until the last heat, when she rounds out of the animals as they had seen was crowded from beginning to the end by before the exhibition, and being convinced that bull and bear fighting was no great which is the best three-miles on record, was 2:193 2: 2:193; 2:19. fied, which they never would have done had they not been allowed to tire themselves out with the animals. Our people have not seen a bull and bear fight, and we venture to say that they will never care to see another-prodding the animals to make them fight is a cruel business, and when seen the fight amounts to little.
